

Mary Immaculate - Roman Catholic Church

We are dedicated to love and serve the Lord.
Mary Immaculate warmly welcomes you to our Parish family!

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 11th, 2026

Praised be Jesus Christ and Mary Immaculate! Since I arrived at Mary Immaculate, July 1st, I have come to know many of you, the parishioners of this beautiful place. Some of you have had the opportunity to have a conversation with me or stopped by after mass to say hi, or share a quick word. I have still yet to meet all of you, but I'm sure, I will get around to it. I can remember when I was at my former parish, St. Ann, that the first few months, I tried hard to get to know the people. One day a parishioner came into the office, and I greeted her by her first name. She was so excited that she exclaimed, "Father! You remember my name?" I quickly blurted out the following response, "Of course I do! I remember your name, not your sins!" From that moment on, my motto for priesthood was that.

Many people here at Mary Immaculate have asked me how I'm settling into my new role here at the parish. I want to thank you, the people of the parish, for making me feel at home and supporting me these first couple of months. There is much to do with God's grace and your cooperation. I'm looking forward to meeting more parishioners. I will even try to remember your names. Even if I don't, just be assured that I won't remember your sins. My prayer and desire for all of you is that you can see God's grace in all things and draw closer to Him. As your pastor, I impart God's blessings upon all of you.

May God our Father grant you an increase in peace, joy and hope. May he give you the strength and grace you need to be holy men and women and the perseverance to follow our Lord Jesus Christ, as He leads you to heaven. Through the intercession of our Mother, Mary Immaculate, may Almighty bless you always, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Electronic Giving is a convenient, consistent way to help our church grow.

Consider scheduling a recurring electronic contribution today. It's easy! You will no longer need to write out checks and prepare envelopes every week. Even when travel, illness or other circumstances prevent you from attending services, your electronic contributions will continue to be received on an uninterrupted basis. To get started please visit our website at www.miwpb.org

In lieu of the current situation we ask our parishioners to please consider continuing your weekly contributions through online giving if you are unable to attend Mass or if you prefer not to handle cash. Thank you and God Bless!

Dar electrónicamente es una manera conveniente y consistente de ayudar a nuestra iglesia a crecer.

Considere programar una contribución electrónica recurrente hoy. ¡Es fácil! Ya no tendrá que escribir cheques ni preparar sobres cada semana. Incluso cuando los viajes, enfermedades u otras circunstancias le impiden asistir a los servicios, sus contribuciones electrónicas continuarán recibándose de manera ininterrumpida. Virtues, Explained!

If the question were posed: "Who is God?" a variety of answers could be given, and more than one could be correct.

The most succinct, however, would be this: God is truth.

"I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," Jesus tells his disciples (John 14:6). The pursuit of truth, he further instructs, will set them free (John 8:32) from the original untruth uttered and embraced in Eden.

If God is truth, he is honored by truthfulness. Untruthfulness, not surprisingly, is synonymous with disorder and broken relationships among mankind — Eden's everlasting legacy. The virtue of honesty, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, is "a kind of spiritual beauty" which measures the degree to which we honor one another in how we live truthfully (Sum. II:II, 145, Art 1-4).

Honesty is something that must be known interiorly in order to be visible exteriorly: "Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your Truth" (Psalm 86:11).

Sunday's Readings

First Reading

The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from every face. (Is 25:8)

Psalm

I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. (Ps 23)

Second Reading

I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry,
of living in abundance and of being in need.
I can do all things in him who strengthens me.
(Phil 4:12-13)

Gospel

"Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find."
(Mt 22:9)

Questions of the Week

1st Reading: Isaiah speaks of the Lord's lavish future blessings upon all nations and peoples. How should we, as believers, best prepare for God's future blessings?

2nd Reading: Paul sees that the key to peace of mind in all of life's circumstances is to be "empowered" by Christ Jesus. How does your faith in Jesus strengthen you?

Gospel Reading: In the Parable of the Wedding Feast, Jesus teaches that all who are invited to God's banquet are to be fully open and prepared. What are some spiritual exercises you practice to remain prepared for God's work in your life?

October 11, 2026

God our Father, Creator of the Universe and Lord over all creation, we humbly stand before you as your children in thanksgiving for your loving care and protection. We ask that you keep us safe from all hurricanes and illness which may threaten us in the coming seasons. Protect us from all fear and anxiety and give us an ardent trust and hope in Your love and mercy. You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind, and the rain.

You alone bring peace, calm, and safety. Father, we thank you in advance, for you are our only Refuge.

We ask this through Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Mary, Queen of the Apostles, and Patroness of our Diocese, Pray for us.

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine your father invited 200 children and adults to your birthday party. He sent a limousine to pick them up, but they would not come. They tore up the car and beat up the driver. So your father sent a bus to the nearest children's home and homeless shelter. The bus took everyone to the party. Each person had a great time. How we act on earth gets us ready to go to God's party in heaven.

Prayer

Holy Spirit, help me to be ready for the big party in heaven.

Mission for the Week

Every day I will say, "Here I am, Lord. How may I help you?"

In mid-October, all parishioners will have an opportunity to offer their feedback as part of a consultation to aid Bishop Manuel de Jesús Rodríguez in his leadership of the Diocese of Palm Beach. Part of the process is the Disciple Maker Index (DMI), which will seek to give Bishop Manuel a snapshot of Catholic life here, who the parishioners are, and what is working well or needs attention in parishes. As the bishop explains in a video promoting the DMI, the survey will be available from Oct. 15 to Nov. 24, 2026.

Liturgical Life

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus shares the Parable of the Wedding Feast, which tells of God's abundant generosity in opening salvation to all those who will accept it.

The King of Rejected Meals

"She was the Queen of Rejected Meals."

That's what I want it to say on my tombstone. Etched in marble, deeply, so the wind and rain of a thousand years can never erase it.

Humor, you see, masks my despair. I'm sure many of you know the feeling of sweating over a hot stove for an hour to create a dish that a small, picky eater will push away, lips curled with disgust.

We've all made a feast no one wanted to come to.

It strikes me that "King of Rejected Meals" is an epithet which could likewise be scrawled on the empty tomb. Don't mistake me — I'm not comparing myself to Christ! (And I'm definitely not comparing my sub-par beef-and-zucchini casserole to the Eucharist, the food of life.)

I'm just saying that a lot of evenings, when I'm clearing plates from the table, I wonder why I even bother. I wonder why I don't just give in and let the kids eat potato chips and KitKats for every meal like they want.

Why don't I? Well, mom guilt, for starters. But it's more than that, really. It's the certainty I have, underneath the resentment, that my efforts aren't in vain, despite all evidence to the contrary.

Hope springs eternal, you see. How can we Christians help but be optimistic? We have been welcomed to a feast laid for others. We find our salvation in the ultimate rejected meal, in recognizing what true nourishment looks and feels and tastes like, even — especially! — when the rest of the world does not.

Maybe one day my kids will eat grilled chicken willingly. Who knows? Miracles happen every day.

Liturgical Life

I NEED

AND TO LOSE MYSELF IN THE HEART OF GOD.”

- ST. MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Life Explained

Question

How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer

Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives!

Catholic Trivia

What is the name of the during Mass?

Answer: An alb

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son... 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast" ' "

- Mt 22:2, 4bc

Bendición Para Nuestro Hogar

Dios, bendice y protege esta hermosa tierra que has creado, el lugar que llamamos hogar.

Cultiva tu compasión en nosotros, mientras compartimos nuestras vidas en este mundo, juntos. Amén.

27° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Todos dependemos de los regalos que Dios nos da, y uno de ellos es el banquete que nos tiene preparado. Solo necesitamos el vestido de fiesta. Sin este, no somos dignos de entrar al banquete y disfrutar de su elegancia y distinción. ¿Dónde se encuentra ese vestido? ¿En qué tienda lo podemos comprar? Ese traje tan especial solo lo podemos encontrar en el Evangelio, diseñado con las enseñanzas de Jesús. Su corte y confección incluyen responsabilidad, justicia, bondad y paz; y, por supuesto, debemos portarlo con alegría en los compromisos de cada día: en la familia, con los amigos y en la comunidad parroquial y del vecindario que nos rodea.

En su tiempo, Jesús fue rechazado por los sacerdotes, escribas y fariseos, pues ellos no admitían la nueva imagen del Dios misericordioso que les mostraba el Hijo de Dios. Invitar al banquete y vestir de fiesta es para todos. "La Iglesia está llamada a ir a las encrucijadas de hoy, es decir, a las periferias geográficas y existenciales de la humanidad: esos lugares marginales, esas situaciones en las que se encuentran y viven fragmentos de humanidad sin esperanza. Se trata de no apoltronarse en las formas cómodas y habituales de evangelización y testimonio de la caridad, y de abrir las puertas de nuestro corazón y de nuestras comunidades a todos, porque el Evangelio no está reservado a unos pocos elegidos... Todos son considerados por Dios dignos de su amor. Él prepara el banquete para todos" (Papa Francisco, 10-11-2020).

TRIVIA CATOLICA

Pregunta: ¿Qué palabras dice un ministro eucarístico antes de dar la Eucaristía a un comulgante?

Respuesta: El Cuerpo de Cristo/ La Sangre de Cristo.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Cuando Dios extiende una invitación, no siempre respondemos con prontitud. Entonces, ¿cuál es el retraso? Examinemos nuestras vidas para ver si hay algo que retrase nuestra confirmación. Esta es una fiesta que no podemos permitirnos perder.

El Sacramento del Bautizo se celebra el último Domingo del Mes, aunque la fecha podría variar. Los padres deben ser miembros activos y deben estar registrados en el sistema de la parroquia. Por favor, coordinen con José Feliciano la inscripción de su niño y de los padrinos para las Charlas Prebautismales, que se realizan, con previa confirmación.

Orando por Nuestros Hijos: Acompañemos cada segundo Domingo del mes, a las 4:00 pm en la parroquia, para unirnos en oración rezando el Santo Rosario por nuestros hijos !Todos son bienvenidos!

Grupo de Oración se reúne los Viernes en la Iglesia de 7:30 pm a 9:30 pm.

Vigilia de Oración cada ultimo Sábado del mes de 8:00 pm a 1:00 am en la Iglesia. Todos están invitados a participar.
